That He Will Be Expected to Give Up Possesion Oct. 1.

There is a new indication of prosperity in Wichita, namely the general scrap for hotel buildings and that of the Occidental in particular. Several days ago the Eagle September 1. Mr. Guyer took a run and jump and lit on the statement with a legal notice to quit he is compelled to bide his time and vacate the house through regular process of law.

The following letter was also received from Mr. Booton yesterday: "Chickasha, I. T., Aug. 31, 1898.

"To the Editor of the Eagle. "Mr. Guyer verbally agreed to give up the Occidental September 1, but went back on his word and would not get out without legal notice being served on him. I flave lease from Mr. Henry Stunkle, owner of the property, taking effect October 1, and will refer you to Mr. A. E. Helm, who draw up the lease. Most respectfully,

Mr. Guyer was seen at the Occidental vesterday and when asked about the matter produced a receipt for his rent for September. He said that if he got the Metropole in shape by October I he would move out of the Occidental, and if not he could hold the Occidental until January, 1899. He thought it wasn't fair treatment to try to shove him out now that the hotel is paying good profit.
